An aerial photograph of a school campus. The image shows several large, rectangular buildings with flat roofs, likely classrooms or administrative buildings. A large, paved parking lot is visible in the foreground and middle ground, with several cars parked. The campus is surrounded by trees and greenery. The text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

"A Moment of Youth"

A year, 365 days, a complete revolution of the earth around the sun. This year, like all years, was a year of moments. A few brief moments, approximately one sixtieth of a lifetime, not to be forgotten. To a youth these moments are special. Each one unique yet each one the same.

Our yearbook is a special moment — it is not a place or a building or people or things or events, but in the final analysis it is an interaction of our thoughts, our memories — it captures all of our precious, everlasting, unforgettable moments of youth!

Bonjour, Monsieur, bien venue a Chez Selma

Directed by Miss Shull, "If That's Where It's At, Baby, I'm Not Going" was a modern play presented by the senior class. The students of a small unknown college try to gain national publicity through riots and student dissent. The dean starts a counter-rebellion and the entire campus is thrown into a state of confusion

Patti Jordan, Sandy Hoffman, Co-Editors

The sum total of all the wonderful memories of this year at SHS is in your hands right now — the 1970 DEVIL'S LOG. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who have been responsible for helping to make these memories possible. It is the hope of the staff that you will enjoy the DEVIL'S LOG and will continue to enjoy it in the years to come, and it is our sincere hope that departing seniors will list among their "Prized Possessions of Sharpsville High," their copy of the '70 DEVIL'S LOG.
